PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY BOARD

April 30, 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director of Central Intelligence
The Director, Defense Intelligence Agency

SUBJECT: Consolidation of Current Intelligence Bulletins
(As Suggested by the Central Intelligence Agency)

At its last meeting the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board held preliminary discussions concerning the CIA proposal that consideration be given to consolidating the daily intelligence bulletins which are now produced separately by CIA and DIA. The Board will further consider this matter at a future meeting. Thereafter the Board may submit views and recommendations thereon to the President, in view of the great importance which the Board attaches to the continuing need for adequate and timely reporting of current intelligence appraisals to meet the requirements of the President, the Secretaries of State and Defense, the members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and other key civilian and military officials having policy-recommending and command responsibilities.

To facilitate our further consideration of this matter it is requested that the CIA and the DIA each provide the Board by June 20, 1963, with a memorandum reflecting their respective views on the subject. We would hope that these submissions would reflect fully the considerations for and against consolidation of the bulletins, including an assessment of the relative effectiveness of combined or separate bulletins from the standpoint of the users referred to above.
